Today we are going to have a special vocabulary lesson.

Today I want to tell you about the American holiday called Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving celebrates the first year the English settlers were in America.

It is celebrated on the fourth Thursday in November.

Today people celebrate Thanksgiving by eating.

A LOT!

This is a traditional Thanksgiving dinner menu.

After Thanksgiving dinner, everyone is full and sleepy.

Or, if all that is too much food you could just have a piece of cake and a soda.

The day after Thanksgiving is traditionally the first day of the Christmas season.

That's my favorite holiday!

Shall we play a game?

What is it?
